Jl Summersari Gang II no 86 Lowokwaru Malang

I am a student majoring in mathematics at Universitas Brawijaya. I am enthusiastic about expanding my knowledge in technology, with a particular focus on backend development and cloud computing. I have experience managing App Engine and Cloud Run for Machine Learning model. I'm also familiar with processing databases using MySQL. I have developed an excellent website and Restful API using programming language HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. I am good at teamwork, problem solving, analytical thinking, project management, and adaptability.
